

Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

JAN. 3, 1957

TORRANCE HERALD

Nine

SLUMBER PARTY AND BREAKFAST

Virginia Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson, 1611 Fern Ave. entertained a group of little friends at a slumber party and breakfast at her home last Thursday night. Virginia's guests were Daleene Goode, Donna Moore, Karen Lind, Penny Volen, Kathy Vaughn and Patty Spehar.

Dr., Mrs. Cook Philip Lisman and Bride Return Entertain At Open House From Honeymoon in Hawaii

In the whirl of holiday parties being given by local society was the festive cocktail-buffet last Sunday evening when Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Cook were hosts to a large group of friends at their home, 2703 Arlington Ave.

Holiday candles decorated the buffet table and the brilliantly decorated Christmas tree was the center of attraction.

Invited to enjoy the Cooks' hospitality were: Messrs. and Meses. Arthur Ascalesi, David Cook, Henry Heinlein, John McCall, Robert Sleeth Jr., Leonard Ensminger, Burt M. Lynn, John Tweedy, Albert Van Leuwen; Mrs. W. I. Laughon and Mrs. Lolly Aherns.

Others from Torrance were Drs. and Meses M. A. Bauman, Ray Larson, Nicolas Gregory, Milton Arriold; Dr. Kurt Shery and Dr. Carl Taballerio.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halverson, San Pedro; Dr. and Mrs. Paul Winn and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cook, Palos Verdes; Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Nebalon, Rolling Hills; Mr. and Mrs. H. MacCafferty, Long Beach; Dr. and Mrs. Richard Schaeffer, Redondo Beach; Dr. and Mrs. N. H. Zrinyi, Los Angeles; Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Greenhut, Redondo Beach.

Arriving last Wednesday morning by plane from Honolulu where they had spent a two weeks' honeymoon were Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Lisman who were married Dec. 15 in a beautiful formal wedding at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Arcadia. Mrs. Lisman is the former Carmen Langlois, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Langlois, 1634 W. Workman Ave., West Covina. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Philip

H. Lisman, 1503 Post Ave., prominent Torrance resident.

The bride, who walked to the altar on the arm of her father, was beautiful in her wedding gown of white silk taffeta and lace fashioned with a chapel train. The gown was trimmed with seed pearls. A pearl tiara held the imported bridal illusion veil and completing the picture was the bridal bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

In keeping with the Yule season, the red and white colors predominated in the wedding decor. The matron of honor and the bridesmaids wore white broadened gowns with red satin sashes and their hats, designed by the bridegroom's aunt, were also of the white brocade with red satin trim. Each carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Serving as the honor attendant was Mrs. Ronald Langlois, sister-in-law of the bride. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Abouchar, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Marilyn Deal and Mrs. Stanley Mullen.

Robert Curry stood as best man and ushers were Keith Pearson and Jack Abouchar. The Rev. Francis Rhoads, pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian Church of Wilmington and long-time friend of the Lisman family, officiated at the vow exchange.

After a reception the couple left by plane for the islands.

They are now at home at 608 Madrid Ave., Torrance. Mrs. Lisman attended Covina High school and Mt. San Antonio college. She has been employed by the Southern California Edison Co.

Mr. Lisman was graduated from Torrance High school and UCLA. He is studying law at Southwestern Law School. At present he is a member of the Lisman-Waddell-Little Certified Public Accountant firm at 1614 Cravens. Mr. Lisman is also a past president of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce.

MRS. RAYMOND HOWELL
... On Honeymoon

Carole Jackson Is Now Mrs. Raymond W. Howell

Climaxing a three-year romance which began when both were members of the Torrance High school orchestra was the wedding of Miss Carole Susanne Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jackson, 18020 Faysmith Ave., and Raymond William Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Howell, 3809 W. 181st St., Torrance.

The marriage was solemnized last Saturday afternoon, Dec. 29, at 2:30 p.m. at the Lawndale Community Church with the Rev. William R. Patterson officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length gown of white chiffon. Her bridal veil cascaded from a rhinestone and pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Heading the bridal entourage were the bridesmaids, the Misses Nancy Beresford, Helen Howell and Dayna Calhoun. Miss Beresford wore lavender net and carried white carnations tied with lavender ribbons; Miss Howell was in green net and her white carnation bouquet was tied with green ribbons, and Miss Calhoun was in blue net with blue satin ribbons on her bouquet.

Miss Susanne Mosher was the maid of honor. Her gown was of yellow net. Her cascade bouquet of white carnations was tied with yellow satin ribbon streamers.

Immediately ahead of the bride was little Marsha Rose as flower girl wearing pink net and carrying a bonnet of roses.

Mrs. T. C. Harrison at the organ played the wedding marches and accompanied T. R. Anderson who sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Richard E. Howell served as his brother's best man, and ushers were Donald Milligan, Al Ward and Willis Jackson, brother of the bride.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and the couple are spending a honeymoon in the High Sierras. Their new home will be in Torrance.

Mrs. Howell transferred to North High school from which she was graduated. She was a member of the orchestra, Julians, student council, and the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Juniors.

The bridegroom is now serving with the United States Navy and is currently aboard the USS Rochester at Terminal Island. Mr. Howell returned Dec. 16 from a tour of duty in Japan. Mrs. Howell plans to continue her education at El Camino college.

REV., MRS. SIPPEL ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Sippel and Mary and Harry, 2914 Onrado had as their New Year's houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Merle Cook of Adel, Iowa. Mr. Cook is manager of the Iowa Power and Light Co. in Adel, former home of the Sippels. On New Year's Day the Sippels and their guests attended the Rose Bowl parade and game and were joined by the Rev. and Mrs. LaVerne Morris of Ottumwa, Ia., parents of Miss Carol Morris, "Miss Universe of 1957," who was participating in the Rose Bowl festivities.

Mrs. Atwood Entertains For Guest

One of the loveliest events of the holiday season was the dinner party given on Christmas Day by Mrs. Emily Atwood at her home, 1504 Acadia, complimenting her aunt, Mrs. Anna Arvesen of New York City, who is spending the holidays here.

Beautiful Christmas decorations were used in the living and dining rooms and an effective centerpiece was on the dining table.

Dinner guests with Mrs. Atwood and Mrs. Arvesen were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams and Mrs. Ruby Zepp of Rolling Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Dryer of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Krekemeyer of El Segundo, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Atwood of Torrance and Joseph Broderick of San Francisco, who was also a houseguest of Mrs. Atwood for several days. Last Thursday evening, Mrs. Atwood entertained at a small dinner party at the Plush Horse in celebration of Mrs. Arvesen's birthday.

The New York guest and her hostess left Sunday morning for San Francisco to spend New Year's Day.

Marymount Alumnae Has A Reunion

Alumnae of Marymount College in Palos Verdes consisting of the first graduating class 1955-56 held its second reunion at the school last Thursday afternoon, from 2 until 4 p.m.

The members were greeted by Mother Francis. A business meeting was held conducted by Kathleen Carroll, president. Louise Kraabel is vice president, and Ann Eaton is secretary-treasurer. Benediction was held after which a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served.

Attending the alumnae meeting was Marilyn Revelle, Nancy Viehhaus and Carol Armstrong of Torrance; Carolee Glenn, Mary Ann Desmond, Ann Eaton, Toni Gillian, and Josephine Puetz of Palos Verdes; Barbara Bogue, Rolling Hills, and Kathleen Carroll, Ethel Mirretti, and Louise Kraabel of San Pedro.

MISS SHIRLEY COOPER
... Accepts Ring

Shirley Cooper's Troth to Joe Keith Crow Announced

Wearing a sparkling diamond which she received at Christmas is Miss Shirley Cooper whose engagement to Joe Keith Crow is being announced today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton L. Cooper, 2842 Winlock Rd.

No date has been set for the wedding.

The bride-elect is a senior at Torrance High school. Mr. Crow, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Crow, 2500 Alvord Lane, Redondo Beach, was graduated from the Venice High school. He is now a senior at Long Beach State College and will be graduated in February. He is majoring in business administration. The future bridegroom is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity.

MISS JOAN BOUNDS
... Engagement Disclosed

Joan Bounds Sets Jan. 19 Date With Rodney Puckett

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bounds of Davis, Oklahoma, are this week announcing the engagement of their daughter, Joan, to Mr. Rodney E. Puckett, 26309 Governor Ave., Harbor City. Miss Bounds resides with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mosley, 23846 Ward St., Torrance.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Davis High School and received her bachelor of science degree from East Central State College, Ada, Okla. She came to Torrance in 1953 and is employed as a teacher at the Extended Day Care Center under the supervision of the Torrance Unified School District.

Mr. Puckett attended Narbonne High school. He is employed by the Chrysler Motor Corp. in Los Angeles. The wedding will be solemnized Jan. 19 at the First Christian Church here.

Spangler-Thomas Vows Are Read at Nativity on Dec. 29

In a nuptial mass at the Nativity Catholic Church last Saturday morning, Dec. 29, at 10 a.m. Miss Jeannie Spangler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Spangler, 105 West 229th St., became the bride of Joseph Michael Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas, 1000 Fiat St., Torrance.

A profusion of white gladioli, carnations and fern interspersed with white candles decorated the altar at which the Rev. Callahan officiated at the vow exchange and nuptial mass.

Mr. Spangler escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over white taffeta. A white cummerbund accented her waistline and formed a bow at the back extending the full length of the skirt. A miniature white satin hat secured the fingertip bridal veil and the bride carried a shower bouquet of white carnations encircling a white orchid.

Mrs. Ronald Pellett served as the matron of honor wearing yellow taffeta and net and carrying a cascade of pink carnations tied with yellow ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Marvin Huffman, Mrs. Frank Algame and Miss Eileen Thomas. Their gowns were of pale green taffeta and net and they carried bouquets of pink carnations tied with green satin ribbons.

Nick Thomas was best man and the wedding guests were seated by Bill Spangler, Jerry Misky and Burnie Thomas.

The two rings were brought to the altar by Billy Thomas. After the wedding, a reception was held in Nativity parish hall where the bride's table was centered with a tiered wedding cake.

The couple left for a honeymoon in San Francisco before establishing their new home on Oak St. in Lomita.

Mrs. Thomas was graduated from Narbonne High school in the winter of 1955 after which she attended Harbor Junior college.

Mr. Thomas attended Serra High school. He is now in the construction business.

Rita Wycoff Chosen for 'Who's Who'

Miss Rita Wycoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Wycoff, 22405 Linda Dr., Torrance, is one of the 12 Trinity University seniors recently elected to the "Who's Who in Trinity."

They were selected by a committee of junior class members appointed by the Student Council. Basis of election to the honored circle is a current 1.5 grade point average, senior academic standing, attendance at Trinity during the junior and senior years, and leadership ability in the student body.

Miss Wycoff, a Dean's List student, enrolled at Trinity in September, 1954. A cheerleader last year, Miss Wycoff is a member of Chi Beta Epsilon, the Christian Vocation Fellowship and Spurs. She was Trinity's 1956 Homecoming Queen.

Club Party At Wilkes Home

The Fred Wilkes home, 22509 Anza Ave., was the scene recently of a festive Christmas party for the members of a sewing group which meets monthly.

After a gift exchange, the group spent an evening visiting. Refreshments were served. The house was decorated with the Yuletide theme.

Members of the sewing group are Meses. George Post, Robert Leech, Milton Youngken, Jim Post, Kenneth Miller, Robert Tolson, J. A. Barrington, H. Werner Sommer, Russell Thornburg and Robert Kerber.

The January meeting of the sewing group will be held at the J. A. Barrington home.

Carolee Glenn's Troth To James Lynn Announced

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Glenn, 5 Rockinghorse Rd., Rolling Hills, entertained 60 friends at a cocktail party last Thursday evening at their home at which time the formal announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Carolee, to James H. Lynn was made.

The wedding will be solemnized on June 22 at the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita.

Miss Glenn was graduated from Marymount College after which she attended Harbor Junior College. Recently she was graduated from the Lawton Dental College in Beverly Hills.

Her fiance, son of Mrs. Marie Lynn, 1020 Ogden Dr., West Hollywood, is a Loyola High school graduate. He will receive his degree from the Loyola School of Engineering next June. Mr. Lynn is also a member of the ROTC,

MRS. JOSEPH MICHAEL THOMAS
... Holiday Bride